DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims consist solely of mathematical operation without some claimed practical application (MPEP 2106 Nonstatutory Subject Matter 2100-12). The claims disclose performing mathematical operations to obtain by linear approximation a specific point of a nonlinear monotonic function without claiming a practical application (i.e. determining a starting point of a program).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Henmi et al, Ohno et al, and Yuen et al disclose devices that can locate the starting points of a recorded program.
